Addl. District Magistrate (Genl), Dakshin Dinajpur
Dated 26/11/2014
D.O. No. 168–CS/2014

Dear colleague,

The Cabinet has recently approved the introduction of self-attestation in lieu of attestation by gazetted officers and others and self-declaration in lieu of affidavits, in order to avail a number of services from the government and its various agencies. Following this, G.O. No. 1275/P&AR (AR)/O/3M-23/2014 dt. 13.11.2014 has been issued by the P&AR Department spelling out the details of the new dispensation w.e.f. December 1, 2014.

2. ACS/Principal Secretaries/Secretaries of the concerned Departments (services included in annexure—I II & III), District Magistrates and Heads of Offices are requested to hold meetings with their officials to ensure the proper implementation and roll out of this citizen-friendly administrative reform undertaken by the Government of West Bengal. Since this will be a continuous process, the list of services wherein attestation and affidavits can be abolished may be periodically updated and submitted to the P&AR Department for approval by the competent authority.

3. The easy availability of the self-declaration format could become somewhat of a problem. Adequate arrangements, namely, ensuring the availability of sufficient unsigned paper copies of the self-declaration (as set out in Annexure IV) and providing simple seals incorporating the text of the self-declaration format in every office, should be made. You may also consider uploading the format on your respective websites. A senior officer should be identified as the Nodal Officer to answer possible queries from the members of public. Wide publicity may be done in local newspapers and channels.

The Principal Secretary, I&CA, may put out centralized advertisements encapsulating the salient features of this initiative, in consultation with the Principal Secretary, P&AR Department.

You may like to apprise Principal Secretary, P&AR or the Under Secretary about the readiness status on November 30, 2014. A copy of the status report may be mailed to the Under Secretary.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Sanjay Mitra
